

SULZER APPROVES $8,000 SALARY FOR MAJ.-GEN. O'RYAN

Takes Opposite View to Dix,
Who Cut Off Allowance
Made by Conway.

ALBANY, Feb. 14.—Legislation providing a salary of $8,000 for Major-General O'Ryan was introduced today. In explanation the Governor said: "Gen. O'Ryan is a very competent military man in the State today. He is popular with officers and men, and will devote his entire time to the building up of the National Guard. He should have a salary commensurate with his worth, and we fixed this after careful consideration at $8,000, which is the pay of a Major-General in the United States Army, but without the allowances, which amount to about $5,000 more."

"I am satisfied that the people are willing to pay their efficient servants well, and that the salary is none too much, all things considered."

In the matter of a salary for Major-General O'Ryan, Gov. Sulzer takes an opposite stand to ex-Gov. Dix, who cut off a salary allowance of $5,000 made to O'Ryan by ex-Gov. Conway, while the latter was acting Governor during the absence of Dix in Europe last year.

LEGISLATORS INDICTED ON BRIBE TAKING CHARGE; FIVE ARE UNDER ARREST.

All Accused of Taking Cash to Vote for Candidate in West Virginia
Senators Fight.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Feb. 14.—The special grand jury summoned to Judge Henry K. Black to consider the charges of bribery in connection with the United States Senatorial campaign, this afternoon returned five indictments. The indicted are: Delegates David Hill, H. P. Ashby, E. S. O. Ruckles and Ralph Huff and Senator H. A. Smith. The five were charged with feloniously receiving bribes.

There were four counts in each indictment. They were also indicted for a misdemeanor, but the exact charge was not made public. The grand jury this afternoon considered additional evidence.

Intense interest centered on the next report which may not be made for several days. The men indicted today were arrested last Tuesday afternoon in the presence of Prosecutor Townsend after they had come from a room in which, it was alleged, they had each been paid for voting for a given candidate for United States Senator. The money, it was alleged, was found in their pockets.

Ex-Detective Arrested.

CHICAGO, Feb. 14.—Harry G. McBrat, a former Pittsburgh detective, was arrested by private detectives here today on the charge of being a fugitive from justice from Pittsburgh. He is alleged to be wanted on a charge of arson growing out of a fire in the Heinz pickle factory in Pittsburgh.

DUEEN INFORMER'S GO-BETWEEN SUES FOR HIS SHARE OF $50,000

Waiter Who Helped Payne
Get Big Award Says He Got $5,000 Promise.

The propriety of the informing business was discussed before Justice Cavekan in the Supreme Court today, when John Saylor, a waiter, asked the court to award to him $50,000, which is 10 per cent. of the reward paid by the United States Government to Joseph Lammer, Payne for betraying the secrets of the Duveen Brothers. The Government collected a fine of more than $1,200,000 from the art dealers, and Payne got $20,000 for revealing the system of art smuggling.

According to Saylor, Payne promised him 10 per cent. of any recovery, provided Saylor would help Payne conceal his (Payne's) identity in making overtures to Collector Loebe. Saylor says he demanded his share but he was refused. He then brought suit against Payne.

In February, 1910, Payne was rooming with Mr. and Mrs. Saylor, and spoke to the waiter about the scheme in the Duveen establishment by which the Government lost large sums because of undervaluations. Payne was then a bookkeeper for the Duveens. The two men then, according to Saylor, planned to deliver the firm into the hands of the Government. Payne insisted, Saylor swore, that his name be withheld. After Payne had assembled his data, Saylor telephoned to Collector Stewart, whom he met near the Custom House. Saylor went into the Collector's office with certain information enclosed in an envelope to be delivered into the Collector's hands.

Payne acknowledged most of the Saylor story except that part bearing on what Saylor was to get. It developed that when Mr. Payne acquired his wealth he immediately returned to England, and is now at Sussex.

COURT REFUSES TO FREE
MYLIUS PENDING BRIEFS.

Judge Noyes in the United States District Court this afternoon denied the application of Simon O. Pollock, counsel to Edward F. Mylius, the English journalist now detained at Ellis Island, to allow his client to go free on bail until Monday, when briefs will be submitted by Pollock and John N. Boyle, Assistant United States District Attorney.

Mylius was refused admittance to the country because he wrote an article relating to an alleged early marriage of King George of England.

Our New Spring Suits

An Advance Showing and Sale

Offering $34.75 Values at $26.50

Paris has appropriated the quaint Bulgarian styles for her own. The salient features of the gullant Bulgarian's military uniforms have been cunningly adapted for milady's smartest street costumes. The illustration depicts one of the cleverest models embodying the Bulgarian blouse effect in the popular wool sponge, with deep cut collar daintily embroidered and trimmed with row of crystal buttons.

The other, a more tailored effect, is modelled on the favored straight lines, has high waisted back and satin collar and cuffs; collar embroidered in Japanese fashion. It is pea de cygne lined; straight line or modified draped skirt; sizes 14 to 18 years, also for smaller women.

Misses' $19.75 Tailored Suits at $16.50

Of English serge, straight front or one button cutaways; new model skirt; sizes 14 to 18 years.
